

Thiptara at The Palace - The Old Town offers finest Thai delicacies and exceptional ambience

- Exquisite location overlooking Burj Dubai and the newly filled lake at Downtown Burj Dubai

Dubai, UAE: The Palace -The Old Town, one of the most elegant 5-star premium hotel destinations in Dubai, offers the best in Fine Dining at its signature restaurant Thiptara. Overlooking the newly filled Burj Dubai Lake in Downtown Burj Dubai, Thiptara offers the finest Thai delicacies in an exceptional location overlooking Burj Dubai, the world's tallest building.

Thiptara, meaning 'Magic at the Water,' further builds on its name with its waterfront al fresco dining out experience. The contemporary exterior of Thiptara is adorned with glowing torches that reflect on the Burj Dubai Lake. Inside, the ambience is distinctively Thai. Guests have the option of in door and al fresco dining in a relaxed and comfortable environment.

Olivier Heuchenne, General Manager of The Palace - The Old Town said: "Thiptara is our signature restaurant and the first Fine Dining Thai outlet to be introduced to the Dubai restaurant scene. The addition of the recently filled Burj Dubai Lake overlooking the outlet further adds to its unique location and ambience."

The outlet serves authentic Sukothai cuisine with special emphasis on Bangkok-style seafood, which is specially selected from the restaurant's live aquarium. Thiptara's signature dish is Pla Nuang Manow which is steamed whole fish glazed with herbs and topped with a spicy, garlic and lemon sauce. In addition to this, its signature vegetarian dish is Tow Hu Phad Kraphow Krob, which is stir-fried bean curd with basil leave and chili. Guests at Thiptara can enjoy a signature Thai menu, featuring many dishes unique to Dubai.

Female Head Chef Thasanee brings more than 14 years of experience in Thai cuisine to Thiptara, creating traditional Thai delights for the restaurants patrons. She works closely with her fellow colleague, Chef Nanthachai who brings an additional 10 years of experience including time spent cooking for The Royal Thai family and the Thai Prime Minister in his past career.

Thiptara came highly commended in the Time Out best Thai Restaurant category in 2009. It is open for dinner only from 7pm and the restaurant adopts an elegant dress code, offering guests the perfect evening, with spectacular views of the world's tallest tower. The Palace – The Old Town also features Asado, an Argentinean Grill restaurant that serves traditional La Parilla cuisine and Ewaan, an all-day-dining restaurant which specializes in a blend of Oriental cuisine.

The Palace - The Old Town is owned and operated by Emaar Hospitality Group's 5 star hotel brand, The Address Hotels + Resorts, and the landmark hotel features 242 beautifully-appointed deluxe rooms including 81 suites, all with balconies overlooking the lake or The Old Town Island.
