Dubai, UAE; February 18, 2010: Nineteen, one of Dubai's signature restaurants at The Address Montgomerie Dubai, a five star premium golf retreat, has been revamped featuring a stylish new look and offering a diverse platter of delectable flavours.

The new look of Nineteen follows the recent rebranding of the property to reflect its management under The Address Hotels + Resorts, the hotel brand owned by Emaar Hospitality Group. A golf retreat, The Address Montgomerie Dubai offers exceptional hospitality experiences for visitors, with Nineteen being a preferred social hotspot for the movers and shakers of Dubai.

Following the revamping, Nineteen has introduced a new grill menu with a rotisserie twist, coupled with a selection of over 250 tantalising vintages. Overlooking the 18th hole of the picturesque golf course, with serene lakes, the mouthwatering aroma from Nineteen's lively and interactive open-kitchen whets the appetite, preparing visitors to discover the sheer culinary pleasure of delectable meats, crispy on the outside, tender on the inside and oozing with flavour.

Master chef Tom Jalleh is responsible for developing the new menu and is the newest member of the retreat's proficient gastronomic team. After working as Executive Chef for Gaucho's, Australia's first Argentinian award-winning restaurant, Jalleh brings extensive knowledge, enthusiasm and passion to The Address Montgomerie Dubai.

He said: "When I was introduced to Nineteen, I loved its stylish dining room and sleek modern feel. Turning the restaurant into a rotisserie grill will bring even more life to the already vivacious restaurant, with fresh new flavours and unique dishes presented to visitors."

Guests can also relax in the chic new lounge, located next to the dining room, which has been designed for an intimate rendezvous or a social gathering with friends. The comfortably modern furnishings set the mood for the evening, while guests can enjoy a glass of their favourite beverage from a delectable range of international flourishes and sumptuous nibbles.

Offering exquisite views, live music and a menu that's as worldly as the 250 plus vintage list, there's something for everyone at Nineteen.
